"When the environment makes gender salient, there is a ripple effect on the mind. We start to think of ourselves in terms of our gender, and stereotypes and social expectations become more prominent in the mind. This can change self-perception, alter interests, debilitate or enhance ability, and trigger unintentional discrimination.

Delusions of Gender: How Our Minds, Society, and Neurosexism Create Difference by Cordelia Fine - narfna Book Review - Cannonball Read 12. I tried to read this book near the beginning of quarantine, in hard copy, and my poor overloaded brain just couldn't handle it. If I had read this in audio, a format my brain can handle for serious subjects, I probably would have rated it much higher, and gotten through it much faster (and I'll be h.
