Venice: Pure City - Peter Ackroyd - Google Books

Venice: Pure City presents a thickly mythologized city of metaphors,reading the city as a vast semiotic network of mirrors, waters, stones, lions,bells, boats, and masks. At times this method succeeds, as when Ackroyd pointsout that the famous stones of Venice are made of limestone quarried in Istria,which "comes from the action of the sea, made up by the unimaginablecompound of billions of marine creatures."
